What Happened to "Other" Severity Packages

The possible severity score of software packages called Other will now show as Unknown.

When the severity level for a package is not scored and/or the vendor provides an insufficient amount of information, the console will now show Unknown. If the package receives a score, it will be reflected in the console and any applicable policies will deploy it accordingly. Unknown indicates insufficient information to provide a severity score.