Important Billing Change - Updated Remittance Address

Please be advised, effective immediately, Automox, Inc has changed its payment remittance. Automox will still accept payments via credit card and at our Walnut address in Boulder, CO through January 31, 2021.

Updated information can be found here.

Enhancements:

- In response to some organizations having millions and millions of packages among their fleet of devices, we have modified the Software page to be more efficient by removing pagination information from the API request. If you have a Software page that takes more than 20 seconds to load, contact support to have this feature enabled and speed up your Software page loading!
 - Optimized the new manual approvals dashboard.
