

Week in Review- Release Notes for Week Ending 04/03/2020

Last Modified on 12/18/2020 9:40 pm EST

Minor bug fixes and new third party patching support for 7 new applications

Bug Fixes:

- Consistent device statuses across the console
- Zoom on macOS will now patch successfully and without disruption if a meeting is in progress
- Removed ability to edit email address from SAML users
- Fixed the invite link in the email that invites others to join a given organization
- Running Chrome instance no longer fails when Chrome is upgraded on Mac
- Harmonized device statuses across the console so that all device statuses are consistent

Enhancements:

- New third party patching support for Slack on macOS and Windows
 - New third party patching support for VMware Horizon Client on macOS and Windows
 - New third party patching support for PuTTY on Windows
 - New third party patching support for Box Drive on Windows
 - New third party patching support for Microsoft OneDrive on macOS and Windows
 - New third party patching support for Zoom Outlook Plugin on Windows
 - New third party patching support for Wireshark on macOS and Windows
-