

Using the Advanced Patch Policy

Automox supports the ability to exclude particular patches or the ability to only deploy patches that match a particular query.

The advanced patch policy takes this a step further by allowing you to create custom patching configurations by choosing certain conditions that best match the desired compliance requirement for the device.

See our User Guide for details: Advanced Policy
